"Katja von Garnier's "Iron Jawed Angels" tells the remarkable & little-known story of a group of passionate & dynamic young women, led by Alice Paul (Hilary Swank) & her friend Lucy Burns (Frances O'Connor), who put their lives on the line to fight for American women's right to vote.

Swank and O'Connor head an outstanding female ensemble, with Julia Ormond, Molly Parker, Laura Fraser, Brooke Smith & Vera Farmiga as a rebel band of young women seeking their seat at the table; also cinematic icons as Lois Smith, Margo Martindale, & Anjelica Huston as a steely older generation of suffragettes.

This true story has startling parallels to today, as the young activists struggle with issues such as the challenges of protesting a popular President during wartime & the perennial balancing act between love & career. Utilizing a pulsing soundtrack, vivid colors, & a freewheeling camera, Katja von Garnier's ("bandits") driving filmmaking style shakes up the preconceptions of the period film & gives history a vibrant contemporary energy & relevance."
